

Student IEA 2016 Fall Conference

Sessions

Friday, November 18, 2016

3:45 PM - 4:45 PM	Hire Me! How to stand out among hundreds of applicants and land a job! (ALL GRADES) Presenter: McKenna A. Serowka
3:45 PM - 4:45 PM	Navigating your Relationship with your Cooperating Teacher Top 10 ideas for surviving and succeeding during your student teacher experience. (Also at 9:00 Saturday) (ALL GRADES) Presenter: Dawn Bullock
5:00 PM - 6:00 PM	Classroom Management for High School Teachers in Regular/Special Ed Settings The goal of the training is to reduce anxiety of new teachers and give them helpful ideas on controlling their classrooms. (GRADES 7-12) Presenter: Tom Tully
5:00 PM - 6:00 PM	Full STEAM Ahead: Elementary Engineers In this hands-on session, learn how elementary students can apply engineering standards into investigative design. These activities can be used in the classroom setting or in all-school science nights. (GRADES Pre-K-8) Presenter: Tim Brinker

Saturday, November 19, 2016

9:00 AM - 10:00 AM	A General Education Teacher's Guide to Working with EL and SpEd Students This session will provide information on how to differentiate for EL and SpEd students from the perspective of a general education teacher who has co-taught with a SpEd teacher. (Also at 10:15) (Grades PreK-6) Presenter: Breanna Pustai
9:00 AM - 10:00 AM	Engaging Parents and Families Participants will learn about the importance of family engagement. They will walk away with ideas on how to engage parents and families in their classroom. (GRADES PreK-6) Presenter: Dr. Katy E. Hisrich
9:00 AM - 10:00 AM	Intervention: Growing Middle School Mathematicians, Cultivating Mathematical Mindsets Learn about our middle school's multi-faceted math intervention model blending high levels of learning with fostering a math mindset. Includes: responsive co-teaching, homeroom math support, afterschool program, and evening webinars. (GRADES 7-8) Presenters: Mary Dooms, Kerry Conrad and Cathy Dickson
9:00 AM - 10:00 AM	Navigating your Relationship with your Cooperating Teacher Top 10 ideas for surviving and succeeding during your student teacher experience. (Also at 3:45 Friday) (ALL GRADES) Presenter: Dawn Bullock
10:15 AM - 11:15 AM	1, 2, 3 = Easy! "1, 2, 3 = Easy!" will work to develop Themed Units focused on bridging the gap between CCSS, Standard-Based Grading, and the Love for a Creative and Innovative Classroom.

	(GRADES 6-12) Presenter: Rae Hughart
10:15 AM - 11:15 AM	A General Education Teacher's Guide to Working with EL and SpEd Students This session will provide information on how to differentiate for EL and SpEd students from the perspective of a general education teacher who has co-taught with a SpEd teacher. (Also at 9:00) (Grades PreK-6) Presenter: Breanna Pustai
10:15 AM - 11:15 AM	Implementing Meaningful Literacy Centers Participants will learn about meaningful literacy centers. They will understand how to implement literacy center effectively, as well as gain new ideas for literacy centers. (PreK-6) Presenters: Dr. Katy E. Hisrich and Dr. Megan McCaffrey
10:15 AM - 11:15 AM	Interviewing: How to Get the Teaching Job You've Always Wanted - 7-8 This session is for future teachers of junior high students. Panelists will share tips you should do now to get your resume noticed, how to stand out in an interview, and much more. (GRADES 7-8) Presenters: A Panel of U-46 District Teachers and Administrators
10:15 AM - 11:15 AM	Interviewing: How to Get the Teaching Job You've Always Wanted - K-6 This session is for future elementary teachers. Panelists will share tips you should do now to get your resume noticed, how to stand out in an interview, and much more. (K-6) Presenters: A Panel of U-46 District Teachers and Administrators
11:30 AM - 12:30 PM	Interviewing: How to Get the Teaching Job You've Always Wanted - 9-12 This session is for future high school teachers. Panelists will share tips you should do now to get your resume noticed, how to stand out in an interview, and much more. (GRADES 9-12) Presenters: A Panel of U-46 District Teachers and Administrators
11:30 AM - 12:30 PM	Preschool Tips & Tricks Learn fun & engaging hands-on activities that develop math and literacy skills that can be used in small groups or through authentic play. Ideas to make your job easier and to save time. (GRADES PreK - 3) Presenter: Hele Babin
11:30 AM - 12:30 PM	Socratic Seminars and How to Avoid Awkward Silence Get your students to do the talking! Learn about Socratic Seminars and student-led discussion. (Also at 1:45) (GRADES 7-12) Presenters: Leila Krzyzewski and Leah Brice
11:30 AM - 12:30 PM	Teaching 201: How to Not LOOK Like a First Year Teacher The first year of teaching is indescribable... Come to learn about a few ways to make YOU and your classroom LOOK like you've been teaching for years. Ideas span from alternative seating to STEMing outside the box to dressing the part to building authentic relationships. (Also at 1:45) (GRADES 4-8) Presenters: Sara M. Duffy and Michele R. Brandt
11:30 AM - 12:30 PM	Using Group Work as a Classroom Management Tool This session will provide strategies for implementing engaging classroom group work, leading to positive student outcomes. (Also at 1:45) (GRADES 4 - 8) Presenters: Simone Larson and Martin Heffner

1:45 PM - 2:45 PM

Socratic Seminars and How to Avoid Awkward Silence

Get your students to do the talking! Learn about Socratic Seminars and student-led discussion. (Also at 11:30)

(GRADES 7-12)

Presenters: Leila Krzyzewski and Leah Brice

1:45 PM - 2:45 PM

Teaching 201: How to Not LOOK Like a First Year Teacher

The first year of teaching is indescribable... Come to learn about a few ways to make YOU and your classroom LOOK like you've been teaching for years. Ideas span from alternative seating to STEMing outside the box to dressing the part to building authentic relationships. (Also at 11:30)

(GRADES 4-8)

Presenters: Sara M. Duffy and Michele R. Brandt

1:45 PM - 2:45 PM

Using Group Work as a Classroom Management Tool

This session will provide strategies for implementing engaging classroom group work, leading to positive student outcomes. (Also at 11:30)

(GRADES 4 - 8)

Presenters: Simone Larson and Martin Heffner